2/21 - OHSAA determines SSM to forfeit 8 victories due to Kevin Armstrong playing in Sandusky CYO game (12/09/1984); reported to SSM officials on 02/20/1985 - Armstrong suspended for 3 games #forfeit loss

Panther cager plays in CYO game; St. Mary's forfeits 8 victories

BY CHARLES WAGNER

St. Mary's Central-Catholic has forfeited 8 boys basketball victories and a varsity member suspended for three games following a ruling by the Ohio High School Athletic Association (OHSAA) at its Board of Control meeting in Columbus Thursday.

The circumstances centering around the ruling involved an appearance in a Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) basketball game in Bellevue Dec. 9, 1984.

Kevin Armstrong, a first-year player for the Panthers, and a senior, competed for a Sandusky CYO entry in a game that day which was not reported to St. Mary's C.C. officials until 11 o'clock Wednesday, Feb. 20.

Principal Don Stock and athletic director-head basketball coach Dennis Faber immediately contacted the OHSAA Associate Commissioner, Richard Armstrong, and informed him (Armstrong) of the developments.

Armstrong, by telephone, informed Stock St. Mary's would be required to forfeit all wins since Dec. 9 and the involved player would be suspended for three games.

Stock and Faber then traveled to Columbus Thursday morning to appear before the Board of Control. Following a discussion and the circumstances involved, the Board met in executive session and upheld Armstrong's ruling.

As a result, St. Mary's is now 3-13 instead of 11-5 and forfeited games include two wins over Fremont St. Joe, and one each over Emmanuel Baptist, Perkins, Clyde, Tiffin Calvert, Norwalk and Huron.

The OHSAA Commissioner commended St. Mary's C.C. for its prompt action.

"It is because of schools such as yourself who possess integrity and a willingness to play by the rules that we have a strong athletic association in this state," Richard Armstrong said.

Stock was upset nobody stood front and center and informed the school what happened that day (Dec. 9).

"Apparently several people have known about this for some time. It's disappointing that no one had the courage to at least quietly inform some school official about this in December," Stock said in a prepared statement.

"Everybody who kept quiet about it, shares the guilt," Stock said.

The contest in Bellevue was the only independent game in which Kevin Armstrong participated.

"From what I can put together, Kevin's brother was playing on the team and he (Armstrong) went to the game and I'm sure had no intentions of playing. The Sandusky CYO team was getting beat and the other kids kept asking Kevin to play and he finally did. Kevin did not play the entire game," Stock said.

The official word came Wednesday when Mark Madden, Tiffin area Associate Director of the CYO, and Mike Krafty, the secretary, contacted Stock at the school.

"We were informed around Feb. 7 and had to check everything out and Mark (Madden) couldn't get to Sandusky because of the weather. He received a phone call from the coach of the Bellevue CYO team that the St. Mary's boy played in that game," Krafty said.

"It wasn't discovered until an assistant coach with the Bellevue CYO team attended a St. Mary's varsity game and noticed Kevin Armstrong was playing. He remembered seeing the boy play in the CYO game and contacted his coach who in turn called Mark," Krafty said.

"CYO officials had known about the violation at least 10 days before notifying SMCC," Stock noted in his statement.
